

DEUTERONOMY:
Jehovah God, the King of Nations
Deuteronomy 2:1-25

Mac Williams, Pastor
September 13, 2009

"The nations which benefited were not even God's covenant family, and yet He blessed them. How much more will He take care of His _____." - Joe Morecraft

1. As King, Jehovah God _____ His will and His ways to men.

- a. God's _____ relationship with His people necessitates a clear revelation of His will.
- b. God revealed His will through particular men, who then put it into _____ form so that the Scriptures are to be considered as the authoritative Word of God.

2. As King, Jehovah God is sovereign over all _____.

- a. God determines the _____ of the nations of the world.

"The _____ of the whole world appertains to Him, so as to distribute to its various peoples whatever part He chooses, and to fix the bounds wherein they should confine themselves." - John Calvin

- b. God providentially raises up certain _____ and puts down others.

3. As King, Jehovah God is the righteous _____ who will, in His time, settle all accounts.

- a. God is longsuffering in His forbearance of _____, but He will ultimately bring judgment.
- b. God's chastening of His covenant people is often _____.
 - 1) Israel is rebuked for a lack of godly _____.
 - 2) Israel is rebuked for a lack of _____ in God.
 - 3) Israel is rebuked for _____ against authority.
 - 4) God designs that times of chastening are to result in godly _____.