

DEUTERONOMY:
God and History
Deuteronomy 1:19-46

Mac Williams, Pastor
September 6, 2009

1. It is because God is the creator and sovereign ruler over all things that history has _____.

"When Moses reviews Israel's history in the wilderness, it is because history has for God and man an inescapable _____. It is not chance nor happenstance: it is God's law-word manifested in the faithfulness or unfaithfulness of men." - R.J. Rushdoony

2. History highlights the tragedy of man's _____.

a. Sin is evil first and foremost because it is _____ against God Himself.

b. Sin flows out of a _____ of God's Word.

This leads to a _____ of God's power and providence.

And this results in outright _____ to God.

c. Sin _____ reality and leads us to think in irrational ways.

d. Sin is often expressed as presumption toward God when people insist that God accept them on their own _____.

3. History gives evidence that God's _____ on man's sin is real.

a. God shows great _____ toward man to give every opportunity for repentance.

b. When there is no _____ judgment is a certainty.

4. History gives evidence of God's _____ to His covenant people.

a. God is _____ to His believing remnant even in the most difficult times.

b. Future generations must _____ from the successes and failures of past generations and place their _____ in the faithfulness of God.